

PROTECT CORE

ENDPOINT AND DATA PROTECTION AGAINST RANSOMWARE AND
AI-DRIVEN THREATS

What is it?

Solid, easy-to-manage protection with strong prevention against ransomware and AI-driven threats for growing businesses that need effective security without added complexity.

Three reasons why you need it

1 STAY SECURE IN THE AI ERA

Protect your business as AI adoption accelerates. Secure your AI interactions and your whole AI ecosystem, and benefit from advanced AI-powered threat prevention.

2 SECURITY WITHOUT COMPLEXITY

Simplify security operations with lightweight protection, fewer alerts, and built-in automation that reduces manual effort and boosts productivity.

3 BUSINESS CONTINUITY

Prevent all types of cyber threats, including phishing or ransomware attacks, reduce the risk of downtime, and stay operational and confident.

Key benefits

- ✓ Business endpoints, servers, public cloud virtual machines and mobile devices are protected by ESET's advanced multilayered LiveSense® technology.
- ✓ Addresses the risks connected to the use of new AI bots like ChatGPT and radically strengthens your security posture.
- ✓ Improved protection against ransomware with automated file restoration from secure backups. Minimize the business impact of a ransomware attack and never run the risk of having to pay a ransom.
- ✓ Proactive threat prevention against targeted attacks with autonomous remediation utilizing advanced cloud sandboxing technology.
- ✓ Cross-platform coverage for all major operating systems helps you protect your entire business environment seamlessly.
- ✓ Unparalleled performance thanks to lightweight endpoint protection and alerts reduced to a minimum, proven by third-party tests.
- ✓ Increase your organization's data security with powerful quantum-ready full disk encryption that is natively integrated into the ESET PROTECT console.
- ✓ ESET PROTECT single pane of glass. One clear, unified console for all your IT and security operations, including firewall, web and device control. Full control, full visibility, all from an intuitive dashboard with customizable reporting.
