CASE STUDY:
CITY HALL OF PALMELA

THE CUSTOMER

Palmela is a Portuguese town and municipality belonging to the District of Setúbal. It is located 25 kilometers south of the Portuguese capital, Lisbon. Geographically, Palmela is a sub-region of the Setúbal Península.

THE CHALLENGE

The city hall of Palmela runs a network including computers at local schools and other educational institutions numbering about 750 seats. With the growing number of workstations, management of security became more and more complicated, which called for a comprehensive solution that could be easily managed centrally.

IMPLEMENTATION

Ana Paula Ruas, head of the IT division by Palmela city hall, explains how ESET was installed across the network: "ESET has always had a very solid reputation, so we kind of expected easy install and configuration, and it turned out true. We started with installing the console – ESET Remote Administrator – and then installed client applications across the network."

PROTECTED BY ESET

Currently, ESET solutions protect more than 750 workstations. All email communications are checked on server by ESET Mail Security for Microsoft Exchange, filtering spam and malware before it reaches clients' mailboxes. "We have been running ESET for several years now and have come to appreciate not only how easy it is to set up and deploy, but also the effective and lightweight client – on any type of machine."
