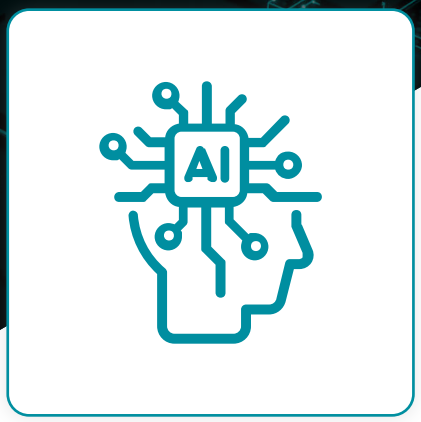
ESET LiveAI

Instant insight, faster incident response

Staying on top of cybersecurity requires in-depth network visibility and the ability to act swiftly. By leveraging the power of ESET LiveAI, businesses can achieve faster incident resolution, minimize downtime, and more effectively protect critical assets. ESET LiveAI is your generative AI cybersecurity assistant—it offers personalized insights into cybersecurity incidents and immediate assistance tailored to your specific needs.



How does ESET stand out from the crowd?

At ESET, we've been creating AI-powered solutions for cybersecurity professionals for more than two decades. An LLM advisor can only give advice that is as good as the strength of the underlying data, and ESET LiveAI excels in this regard. It is integrated with ESET Inspect, our XDR-enabling module. Unlike other vendors, ESET focuses on all stages of the threat lifecycle. We do this by employing a strategy that uses multiple layers of protection, a wealth of signals and in-depth system telemetry. In this way, ESET LiveAI works with only high-quality data. As a result, the recommendations and insights provided are accurate and reliable, enhancing your overall security posture.

How can you empower your security teams with ESET LiveAI?

AUTOMATE REPETITIVE TASKS

Managing routine processes such as data collection, extraction, and basic threat detection allows security teams to focus on more strategic initiatives. You'll also benefit from AI-generated reports for clear and concise insights.

ELEVATE YOUR PROACTIVE SECURITY POSTURE

Get hints on which proactive measures you should prioritize to maintain operational continuity and protect your organization's reputation.

REDUCE RESPONSE TIME FOR CRITICAL INCIDENTS

ESET LiveAI accelerates decision-making by providing actionable insights. Less experienced professionals can rely on its automatically generated recommendations to respond swiftly to critical incidents.

FACILITATE A SIMPLIFIED INCIDENT WORKFLOW

Minimize the impact of security incidents and implement a more efficient incident management process. ESET LiveAI simplifies and streamlines your incident workflow, prioritizing incidents and putting seemingly unrelated detections into context.

BRIDGE THE CYBERSECURITY SKILLS GAP

By providing SOC team-level advice, ESET LiveAI bridges the cybersecurity skills gap, empowering your users to make informed decisions and respond effectively to security incidents. It caters to users of all skill levels and simplifies complex threat information, making it accessible even to less experienced IT and security professionals.

Key features and benefits

QUICKLY ASSESS AND RESPOND TO INCIDENTS

Instantly identify data access or exfiltration and act fast with a clear, actionable response plan – minimizing risk, reducing downtime and ensuring efficient incident handling.

EASILY NAVIGATE THE INCIDENT GRAPH

Get instant explanations of crucial elements for each incident through a comprehensive summary. This simplifies complex data, making it easier for your team to understand and respond effectively.

STAY ONE STEP AHEAD OF ADVERSARIES

Learn the techniques used by adversaries in the incident, including entry points and persistence assessments. Anticipate and counteract future threats, enhancing your overall security posture.

BREAK DOWN AND ANALYZE THREATS

Get a clear, step-by-step attack summary with full chain visibility, plus deep malware insights to strengthen defenses and guide smarter, automated response strategies.

KEEP YOUR DATA PRIVATE

ESET LiveAI uses your inputs and security data solely to generate responses, with all data stored in a closed, secure environment. We anonymize your data and keep it within your legislative region whenever operationally possible.

WORK SMARTER

Use a simple, chat-based interface to ask quick questions or craft complex prompts. Get clear, actionable incident descriptions and benefit from evolving AI-powered features that accelerate your work.

EMPOWER YOUR TEAM WITH ETHICAL AI

Boost every skill level with human-centered AI that amplifies expertise and builds confidence. ESET LIveAI lightens your team's load – never replaces them.
